

Dean's Message

Aloha and Welcome to the School of Nursing and Dental Hygiene!

We are at the forefront of health professions education in Hawaii offering innovative programs in a multicultural setting enhanced by simulation technology and web-based education, with rich clinical experiences, cooperative internships, research projects, and interdisciplinary study opportunities.

The education received at the School of Nursing and Dental Hygiene at the University of Hawaii at Manoa distinguishes our graduates in today's changing healthcare environment. Whether you are considering joining the SONDH Ohana (family) or are already part of the family as a student, alumni, and/or community supporter, I encourage you to explore our website to learn about our exciting offerings, faculty, and activities.

Join us on our journey to enhance the health of our community!
