

Curriculum

Notice – 12/9/2020

In response to changing workforce demands, UH Manoa Nursing has created a new Online ADN to BS program for associate degree in nursing and diploma graduates. UH Community College Nursing Consortium students and graduates apply to the new Online ADN to BS program that enrolls in fall and spring. We are no longer accepting applications to this pathway. The program curriculum below applies to students currently enrolled in this pathway.

Upon admission, each student will receive a personalized review of completed coursework to create an individualized progression plan for program completion including general education requirements. Sequence of courses for the January admitted students from Kapiolani Community College may differ from the curriculum posted online.
